Stracchino is a super fresh, soft creamy cheese. It's made from the milk of alpine cows, of which it is said, they are tired from walking down the mountain for milking and this makes the cheese richer creamier and more delicious.

Speck is also a mountain produced delicacy. It's a dry cured ham with a rub of alpine herbs including bay leaf and juniper berries, it is then lightly smoked outdoors & aged for six months in the mountain air. It has its own delicious flavour and its production is limited to local producers, who follow traditional methods.
